God is SOVEREIGN.

When God looks at the evil in the world at the time of Noah, what kind of evil seems to be standing out to Him most?

What sets Noah apart as different?

What is going on in the heart of God when He looks around and sees His creation so filled with evil?

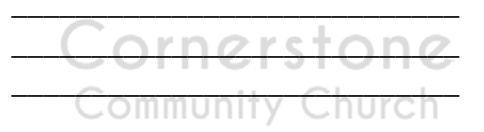

Is the story of the flood a story of mercy or of judgment?

I heard about Cornerstone from:

I'd like to talk with someone about a personal relationship with God.

Next Steps I would like to share with Pastor Nate:

*After completing this card, please drop it in the offering box in the back of the room. We have a gift card for any guests who share their contact information with us.

Next Steps with God this week:

- Take some time to think about God's heart toward us. Thank Him and praise Him that He cares so deeply for us. (Book recommendation: "Gentle & Lowly; the heart of Christ for sinners & sufferers" by D. Ortland)
- Evaluate my own life - attitudes, priorities and choices.
 - o What in my life brings God joy?
 - o What in my life brings God's sorrow?
- If I can do it honestly, repent of anything in my life that I know brings God sorrow (attitudes, priorities, choices). With God's help, commit to change so that my life more consistently brings joy to God.

IMMERSE yourself in practical Bible teaching, both privately and publicly.

FUSE with other believers and pursue application of truth together.

RADIATE God's love by serving others and sharing your story with them.
